I'm running the 2025 London marathon for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

Every day, seven young people aged 13-24 hear the words "you have cancer".

Cancer doesn't just devastate their health. It threatens to take away everything they care about – their identity, their independence, and their dreams.

Teenage Cancer Trust funds specialist nurses, youth support teams and hospital units within the NHS to provide the very best care and support during treatment and beyond, making sure cancer doesn't stop young people living their lives.

They're the only UK charity dedicated to meeting this vital need.

Please donate using the link or see Mr Brett-Roberts with any questions or to help out with fundraising events.

Watch out for fundraising activities!

Jubilee Catholic Young Writer Award Competition

This annual Award for Catholic school pupils of secondary school age was launched by The Keys, the Catholic Writers Guild of England and Wales in the 1990s and has been flourishing ever since. It is now sponsored by the Catholic Union Charitable Trust.

The winners are invited to the Annual Meeting of the Catholic Union, held each Autumn in London, to receive their prizes from the President, Baroness Hollins.

Catholic Young Writer Award 2025

by Louisa Collier-Hamlin / 06/01/2025

Theme for the 2025 Jubilee Year Award: Jesus Christ, Son of God

Imagine a friend has said to you: “I think Jesus was a great man, and wonderful moral teacher, but I do not accept that he is God.”

Write a response to this, explaining why we know Jesus is who He claimed to be: our Saviour and Redeemer, promised from the beginning.

To help you, here is a quotation from CS Lewis, the great Christian writer:

“A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said wouldn’t be a great moral teacher. He’d be either a lunatic on a level with a man who says he’s a poached egg or else he’d be the devil of hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse”. (1952)

In your essay, you should make use of the Scriptures, especially the words of Christ Himself in the Gospels. You should also show evidence of having consulted the Catechism of the Catholic Church and some recent Papal teachings, eg from Pope St John Paul II, Pope Benedict XVI and Pope Francis.

Entries should be submitted directly to the website using the link; <https://catholicunion.org.uk/2025/01/catholic-young-writer-award-2025/>

Lord, thank you for the gift of this day and the time to live and love in your
